He has been a candidate for office bien-nially since 1890, and with the excep-tion of 1895 has defected Mormon can-didates. He indorsed Senator Smoot highly and man

Witness said he was perfectly clear that nothing in the obligation taken expressed hostility to the Nation or to this Government. He said it was tathis Government. He said it was ta-ken from the scriptures, Revelations, chapter 6, verses 9 and 10. There was nothing in it, he said, of disloyatty to the United States. He said it had been forty years since he took the endowment, and he could not remember the exact language, as it did not particu-larly impress him.

Doesn't Know Polygamists.

On cross-examination Mr. Noon said he did not concern himself with polygarry, and was unable to state who were polygamists in Provo. Many names were read to him, and he identified them by common repute as living in polygamy. Chairman Burrows asked Mr. Noon also in regard to the endowment cere-mony, and he declined to state its nature. He would not say whether there was a change in wearing apparel, whether there was a severe penalty attached to revesling what had taken place or anything connected with the obligations. "What would you say as to whether the penalty was to have the tongue torn out or the vitals cut out of the body?" asked Chariman Burrows. "I do not feel that I could answer,"

Noon replied. Mr. Dougall was recalled and asked whether there was anything in his en-dowment oath incompatible with his allegiance to his State and the Nation. He replied that there was nothing. Mr. Noon was recalled and answered the same question in the negative. man Burrows again recalled Mr. Dou-gall, and several Senators wanted to know why he would state a part of the ceremony and would not state it all.

He said he could not remember the exact wording of the obligation of vengeance, but was sure it was not hostile to the Government, and that it was exclusively religious and not related in any manner to civil or governmental affairs

William Hatfield of Salt Lake City was sworn. He was a Mormon until he was 22 years of age, and then drifted away from the church. He testified that polygamy was decreasing, and that he had known of no plural mar-riages since 1890. Mr. Hatfield took the endowments at

Mr. Heyburn suggested and Mr. Mc-Cumber offered an amondment requiring women taking advantage of the provisions of the proposed law to renounce all titles of nobility which they may have acquired, and it was agreed to.

At the suggestion of Mr. Spooner, the bill went over for a day. A bill making it as felony to counterfeit the great seal of the United States was passed.

The following bills were also passed. Authorizing the sale of obsolete arms to Grand Army posts; providing that in the retirement of petty officers and collisted men of the mavy, the entire service of the men shall be taken into account, removing the time limitation on the payment of bounties to ex-soldiers; providing for the protection of game in the Wichits forest reserve.

Mr. Heveridge made another effort to get a time fixed for the taking of a vote on the joint Statehood bill. Mr. Bate said that the opponents of the bill are not yet prepared to fix a day and could not say when they would be. WASHINGTON, Jan. 14.—Mr. Takahira, the Japanese minister, had a long talk with Mr. Loomis, the acting Secretary of State, today about the Chinese neutrality and Russia's circular note to the powers on the subject.

So far as the dispatches show there are alleged instances specified in the latest Russian note of violation by China of neutrality that have not been mentioned in previous notes on the subject, and replied to by Japan. Whether the Japanese Government will see fit further to reply probably will not be determined. The official text of the note has become generally known.

WAS A QUIET ELECTION.

Board of Governors.

While it can by no means be said that the election of a board of governors at the Commercial club last evening was of little consequence, no one would have imagined that there was anything special doing had they called during the hours the polis were open. There was but one ticket in the field and in consequence the supervisors of election had little to do. Those selected to pilot the club over a safe and successful course during the next three years were. Joseph F. Galigher, John C. Cutier, Sr. Leon Sweet, Charles A. Quigley and Fred W. Francis.

Joseph E. Galigher has been engaged in the mining machinery supply business for the past twenty-five years in Salt Lake City, and it quite naturally follows that he has a large acquaintance with the prominent men of the city and State. For years he was one of the most prominent members of the Alta club and throughout his career has always been identified with the business and social life of the city. John C. Cutier, Sr. is Governor of Utah and one of the heaviest owners of sugar factory property in the State having, in fact, been the proprietor of the original factory at Leht.

Leon Sweet is known as the proprietor of one of the largest wholesale confectionery factories in the West, the Salt Lake Candy company. Charles A. Quigley, general manager of the State have he will be most prominent of the State and has for years been identified with those who are interested in building a greater Salt Lake City. Fred W. Francis is a member of the firm of Callaway, Hoosak & Francis, proprietors of one of the leading art and erockery stores of the country.

The supervisors of election were William H. Tibbals, H. T. Cleaver, W. J. Burton and F. W. Gardiner. At an election to be held within a week, a president is to be chosen and from present indications it would seem that one man, satisfactory to all the members, will have been decided upon before hand, and consequently no particular interest will be centered in the result.
